

Sturgis Weekly Record
April 11, 1884

Alex Brown, sergeant H troop 7th cav., was buried at Meade Wednesday with full military honors. He had been twenty years in the army and was discharged about three weeks ago on the surgeon's certificate of disability. He was soon to start for the Soldier's Home at Washington, and apply for admission, but the "white hand" beckoned him home.