Last Saturday at Deadwood Judge Rice granted an alternative writ of mandamus citing Max Hoehn, register of deeds, to either grant Walter Dale access to the public records of his office or appear in court on the 8th of October and show reasons for not so doing. Max will make a showing in court.

In chambers at Deadwood last Wednesday, Judge Rice heard the reasons presented by Max Hoehn, register of deeds, as to why he would not permit Walter D. Dale access to the books of public records in his office. The court decided to give the matter further hearing at convening of court in this county, and during the intervening time granted Mr. Dale and his assistants privilege of using the books for two hours of each day.
